Customer Reviews

I'm reading this series to my son, who is in kindergarten and my 2nd grader is reading the series to his Dad. We fully enjoy the series and had pre-ordered this Outback version and the next to Himalayas. We received the back at the beginning of the week and are already done; now eagerly waiting on the next version...sometime in Aug. We love the team work that has developed between all the charters of team red and now with the new member as team 10. As a mom its exciting to read and share with my son some amazing locations around the world and the creature features section on animals; both sons are very excited to now travel to all of these locations! We hope Kristin continues the race beyond the Himalayas.

Mu son loves these books. He had bought 2 from his school book Fair and book order for his class. He had asked for this one and I forgot to put it on his book order. Had it to him before the school book order came in.
