This amazing book by Rose Publishing brings to life the visual imagery given by God in Old Testament times of how difficult (impossible) it is for fallen man to approach Him in his pure holiness. Starting at the outside of the tabernacle, the materials (sea cow) are the coarsest and most common (signifying man) and all may enter in at the main gate (the gospel call given to all). As you progress through the Tabernacle and the sacrificial system, the materials get finer and finer, and the access becomes more and more limited ("For narrow is the gate, and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few." Matt 7:14). Until at the end, one man alone is granted access to the Holy of Holies, almost a solid gold room (signifying God's holiness and purity). This book makes real the complete and utter inability of wretched, depraved, sin-loving man to reach God. Ah, but then come two of the most beautiful words in the Bible: "But God...." "But God.... makes a way for sinners to be made right with Him. No amount of religion and good works can do it...we must rely on - and place our faith in - HIS provision. In Old Testament times, it was through faith in the sacrificial system, with an understanding that this system was a shadow of something greater to come. We live in New Testament times, under the new covenant, and we understand God's plan in its entirety...and we know his name is Jesus. Dimly glimpsed in types and shadows in the Old Testament, gloriously fulfilled and revealed in the New Testament as the FINAL Lamb of the sacrificial system (Hebrews 9). But God.... has made a Way." Since the days of John the Baptist, the kingdom of heaven has been advancing with force. And forceful people are taking hold of it.....

Wow. I'm not exaggerating when I say, "wow". This is an absolutely stunning resource on Israel's Old Testament Tabernacle. Rose puts out some exceptional material as they faithfully equip the church of Jesus Christ to explore and teach the Bible and all things Christian. Rose's Guide to the Tabernacle is a 117 page hardcover and spiral bound book in the top tier of Rose's portfolio. This book is worth every penny. The authors start off exactly where they should: laying the foundational context for where the tabernacle fits in the grande story of redemption found in the scriptures. Creation, fall, flood, babel, Abraham, promises, covenants, slavery, redemption, law and worship! Enter the tabernacle; God's mobile worship center where He dwelt with His people, accepted their substitutional animal sacrifices for their sin and lead and guided them through Moses and Aaron. Here are some of the great features found in this book: Extensively detailed charts comparing the Levites, Priests and the High Priest, Intercessors in the Bible, Jesus and the Ark of the Covenant, organization of the tribes around the tabernacle, the Jewish calendar and its feasts and festivals and many more! Three different cutaway clear plastic overlays showing the most holy place, all of the coverings for its roof and the contents of the ark of the covenant. Beautiful full or two page illustrations of the glory of God above the tabernacle, the high priestly garments, the duties of the priests in the courtyard and in the holy place, the journey of the ark from Sinai to its probable destruction by the Babylonians in 586BC, full color and highly detailed maps of the journey from Egypt to Sinai and much more.
