Mail Order Bride: The Indian Sheriff's Baby (Brides And Babies Historical Romance Series)

Synopsis

DOWNLOAD FOR FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED When Isabelle Bishop is forced to marry a much older man at the demand of her father, she takes matters into her own hands to escape. She runs away to Nevada to be a mother to a child she has never met. Before he became Sheriff of Rock Creek, Louis Chayton™ Dreyfus had to deal with prejudice and judgment on a daily basis, simply because he was different. He finally proves himself to the entire town and the judgmental stares were replaced with friendly smiles. Nine months after the tragic death of his beloved wife, Louis still mourns her death, and has a difficult time raising his daughter, Maska on his own. He makes a bold move by placing an ad for a mother for Maska in the famous Matrimony Times and Isabelle Bishop enters his life. When a dreadful fire destroys Chayton™s house, he badly injures his face, leaving Isabelle in the dark about his physical appearance. If beauty is only skin deep, will the secret that Chayton had kept from Isabelle break them apart? Or will Isabelle see past his physical appearance and love him for who he is on the inside, rather than what he looks like on the outside? And can Isabelle give his daughter the love and care she desperately needs? A wonderful clean and wholesome story from Emma Ashwood, with suspense and romantic interest that will keep her avid fans enthralled until the revelations come in a surprising finale |

Customer Reviews

What a beautiful short story! The characteristics of each person were so clearly described that this reader felt she knew each one and loved most of them. My heart was breaking for the heroine, but she handled everything perfectly. Emma Ashwood is a gifted author and I eagerly await another of her novelettes. I have no reservations in recommending this book for the whole family.

Expectations are hard to live up to when they're not what makes you happy. Doing right can lead to happiness if you aren't selfish. Sheriff shows this through out his life. Tragedy does pass. This story is good all around and in many ways.

It was so refreshing to read about a young person that grew up with everything and was not spoiled. She was so giving and a heart of gold. I was so glad she had a happy ever after. Sonja Stover

The characters and plot of this book was wonderful. I was drawn into the story and could not put the book down until I had finished reading it. This book deserves the five-star rating plus.

Nice to read a story where folks put aside ethnic prejudices for the merits of the person themselves. Doesn't happen often.

Another story to love from Emma Ashwood. I gave her book my usual 5 star rating. I hope you will enjoy the story also!!!!!!
