Malloy Higgins married Louis when she was eighteen after she met him at seventeen. When she was twenty SHE got pregnant when she was six months pregnant with Grace the sheriff came to tell her Louis was shot in the chest when he tried to hold up a man. She had no idea he was a thief that robbed people before they were married and started back in that life style to get more money when he found out she was having a baby. She came to the right place to find a husband for the man who took a liking to her and her baby Grace offered her his love and protection.

These books definitely deserve the five-star rating. The first book is about learning to trust. The second book is about a young widow with a small baby and how she changed her opinion of cowboy and his unkempt appearance after her baby took to him immediately...she would do anything for her baby girl.

These books are great. There is mystery and sweet clean romance. An awesome author and I highly recommend these books. I won this book set but would have bought it. Cannot wait for another book in this series.

These were very good Stories. I Got Loss In This Series, They Really Stood Out. I was glad that Mally and Myles got together .But I Am wanting to find out more of the Two Sisters Wanted For Murder. Shirley Ketcham

Stories to first put you on the edge of your seat, then warms your heart. Two of my favorite authors have done some terrific writing to show us that all is not what it looks like. I recommend these books for all to enjoy.

I love all of her books. Love the mail order brides. These two books were disappointing in that both had several whole pages blank and it was key scenes that were blank. Hadn't had this happen before.
