The Rose Book of Bible and Christian History Time Lines is a full-color book with a fold-out 20-foot time line inside. It covers more than 4,000 years at a glance. It compares Bible and World history side by side. The time line can be read like a book, or taken out the cover and put it up on the wall. (You can do this without damaging the book, as it has a slide-out pocket in the back.) It has more than 1,000 facts and key people. Comparison to other Bible/Christian History time line books on the market: (1) The Rose time line includes more than 6,000 years of history from Genesis to present day and is more than 20 feet long. It includes the genealogy from Adam and Eve to Abraham and more. (2) includes highly detailed information from 2200 BC - present, whereas the Timechart of Biblical History ends at AD 100, and the The Wallchart of World History (Revised): From Earliest Times to the Present - A Facsimile Edition ends at 1997. (3) The Rose timeline includes more than 300 key events and people from church history (the Wallchart of World History has 30 facts specifically addressing key events/people in church history), (4) Rose has illustrations, photos, archaeological finds, maps, and uses updated scholarship. The Wallchart of World History and the Timechart of Biblical History are mainly reprints of a public domain time line from the Victorian era (1890). Most of the illustrations are quaint colored pen-and-ink drawings.
