Customer Reviews

I met Yoko on a trip from the UK to the USA we talked and talked the 10 hour trip was more like 1 hour, she later sent me her book, I could not put it down. I was so pleased to have met this wonderful person.

This was a great book. Yoko talked about times when she was a young girl. When they would eat dinner they would be able to share stories about their day. This book is a collection of some of the stories that her brother, sister and herself would share.

Great stories, and art. Japanese folk tales.

this is one heck of a book. It really made me realize how lucky i am to have the life i have. I highly suggest this book for everyone of all ages.-jamie
