Customer Reviews

Although it states Torah as a teaching, it leans more towards Jewish believes instead of Torah. I wish there would have been pictures so I could have had a better idea. I wouldn't have ordered it. Now what do I do with it?

I bought this to share with my 6 yr.old grandson. It was informative and he enjoyed it. This is a fun way to teach children about Elohim's appointed Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot).

Love that Sammy Spider helps kids (Jewish and Messianic alike) understand fun traditions surrounding the Holiday Wish there was a little more history though.

My son loves this book. He's 3, and it was a great way to introduce Sukkot. We aren't Jewish, but are Christians who celebrate Biblical feasts.
