The Excellency Of Christ

Synopsis

"The Excellency of Christ" was preached in Northampton, Massachusetts by Jonathan Edwards and printed in 1738. This sermon explains Christ's excellency in terms of almost contradictory conjunctions such as Christ being a lion and also a lamb at the same time. In the APPLICATION the reader is exhorted to love and embrace Christ as friend, portion and Savior because of His many excellencies.

Customer Reviews

Stilted but essential reading for anyone who wants to fully understand the teachings and foundations of the Great Awakening in America. It should be read by current teachers/preachers as a reminder of getting back to basics of faith.

This sermon is more amazing every time you read it. This takes the uniqueness of Christ to a whole new level. Edwards masterfully persuades you of the absolute excellency of the Lord Christ in His diverse qualities and singularly fulfilling all that the sinner needs - to be your Champion and your Friend. Give the long sentences a chance, and get blown away!
