Customer Reviews

The story continues from volume four where broken hearted Sooho discovers Prince Isaac asleep underwater as he's attempting to escape from his pursuers. Prince Isaac helps and tries to hide Sooho only to later be discovered by Prince Nick, the son of Isaac's uncle he's taken refuge under. Prince Nick however is not too fond of either one of them especially Isaac (maybe due to his father favoring Isaac). In order to prevent Sooho from being sold off, Prince Isaac offers himself to be a literal punching bag for Prince Nick abuse (torturing Isaac both mentally and physically). Over time, Sohoo discovers what Isaac is doing and develops feelings for him. Unlike Kiahn, Sohoo finds Isaac considerate, gentle and comforting. Isaac on the other hand likes that he's able to protect Sohoo with his own hands. For so long, Isaac felt like a caged bird, powerless and apathetic. As they spent more time together, Isaac also falls in love with Sohoo. In between all of that you have cute romantic interactions between the two which is a contrast to Kiahn and Sohoo prior interactions. During the time Kiahn is desperately trying to find Sohoo using whatever means. He does eventually manage to track him down and lure both Isaac and Sohoo back to the island. Kiahn confronts Sohoo and threatens to hurt Isaac should he resist his attempts to take him back. Kiahn at that point reiterates that no one but him can have Sohoo. To the side it focused a little on Ryuka and Kyungmin and their current daily life. Ryuka admits to himself that he's falling for Kyungmin.
