Customer Reviews

This well-known story is presented with stunning illustrations and easy to manage chapters. The vocabulary is accessible to younger readers, and the characters are clearly delineated. It is the type of book that can be read in parts without losing the focus of the main story. It is certainly one of the best presentations of the Arthur stories.

This was my favorite book to pick out of the kids section in the library when I was younger, it sparked an interest in King Arthur legends that I hadn't had before.
